

RNA Newsletter for February 1998

January 13th, 1998 1791st meeting of the RNA and January 27th, 1998 1792nd meeting of the RNA. The RNA meetings are held in the basement of the Eisenhart Auditorium, 657 East Avenue, Rochester New York, on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month September through June. Membership dues are $15.00 per year.

OFFICERS REPORTS :

TREASURER : Just a reminder that there are still a lot of members whose dues are past due. Please try to remit your dues as soon as possible before your membership is dropped. Members who have paid their dues in January will receive their membership cards with this newsletter. Also the club recently donated $100.00 to the ANA Numismatic curriculum fund. The fund is trying to interest school age children in numismatics by providing school activities for them on the subject of coins. The ANA has sent a certificate acknowledging our contribution.

MEMBERSHIP CHAIRMAN : The RNA would like to welcome two new members to the Club. Sue Hoover was unanimously voted in at the January 13th meeting and Carl Nudo was unanimously voted in at the January 27 th. meeting. Congratulations to the new members !!!!!

CURATOR : The Curator John Zabel is looking for volunteers to help out at the RNA exhibit at the Rochester Museum. The dates are Saturday February 7th and Sunday February 8th at the Rochester Museum, Times are 9:00 am till 5:00 p.m. both days. Volunteers are needed to operate the display table and answer general questions about Numismatics and the RNA. If you can volunteer an hour or two of your time please contact John Zabel at (ph. 716- 223-3228). The museum is located off East avenue behind the Planetarium. Along with exhibits from the clubs collection there will be giveaways for the children. Members are welcome to bring their families to the show.

OLD BUSINESS :

COIN SHOW : Bill Coe has finished with the final numbers for last Octobers coin show and they are as follows:

We had 31 dealers for Saturday and 21 dealers for Sunday.

The drawing tickets were a success Dave Foster and company beat last years sales by $16.00.

The clubs revenue from the show after expenses was $1246.37.

NEW BUSINESS :

BUFFALO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION : The BNA is looking for new members. They are currently trying to revitalized their club. The BNA was founded in 1927, but in most recent years activity had dropped off to one dinner meeting a year. Now the BNA is making a come back. They meet in Williamsville (suburb of Buffalo)

at
the Westwood country club. For more information contact :

ANTHONY DOLLAR : The following notice was given to the secretary to be passed on to the membership concerning replacing the Anthony Dollar.

This opinion does not in anyway reflect the views of the RNA or its secretary.

Replace Anthony? Never!!!! The Time to act is now!!! Write or Phone the Honorable Robert Rubin.

Keep Susan B. Anthony on the next Dollar Coin!!!

The decision as to what image will be on the new dollar coin is now in the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury. It's time to let Robert Rubin know how strongly you feel about keeping Susan B. Anthony on the new coin. Write or phone, NOW !
